

Resolutions from NDLA 2009 Annual Conference
Days Hotel Grand Dakota Lodge
Dickinson, ND
September 23-26, 2009

Resolution from the Executive Board:

Whereas, the meeting and the events of the 103rd annual conference were organized by Laurie McHenry, Conference Chair; Local Arrangments Committee members; and other Dickinson area librarians and friends, and

Whereas, the facilities and staff of the Days Hotel – Grand Dakota Lodge & Conference Center, Dickinson, North Dakota, contributed to the success of the conference,

Now therefore be it resolved:

That the North Dakota Library Association expresses its appreciation and extends its thanks to the Conference Chair, members of the Local Arrangements Committee, conference facilities staff, speakers, program presenters, and exhibitors for the 103rd annual conference, “Evolution of the Library.”

Resolution from School Library & Youth Services Section:

Whereas, School Library Media Specialists are already required to have two library and three education credits during the renewal period.

Whereas, as part of a collaborative teaching team, Library Media Specialists need to have a wide range of classes across the curriculum as well as educational strategies and technology in order to be an integral part of the collaborative teaching team.

Whereas, teachers/Library Media Specialists need to continually update credits in their teaching field as well as library and technology.

Now therefore be it resolved:

After two library credits have been obtained the other educational classes and institutions should be at the discretion of the Library Media Specialist.

Respectfully Submitted,

Zach Packineau
