

9. Government Documents Roundtable

September 12, 2005

The 2004 NDLA Notable Documents Award winner was the book, A Vast and Open Plain: the Writings of the Lewis and Clark Expedition in North Dakota, 1804-1806. Plaques were presented to editor Clay Jenkinson and State Historical Society Director Merlan Paveruud October 24 by NDLA President Marlene Anderson during one of the Circle of Cultures programs held in Bismarck, a national Lewis and Clark Signature Event. Thanks go to Stella Cone from the State Library, who made the arrangements for the presentation. Stickers were sent to the State Historical Society to be placed on copies of the book. A copy of the book was submitted to ALA's notable documents panel and was selected as one of 2004's notable documents.
