

Government Documents Roundtable Report, June 14, 2007

In preparation for the fall, GODORT confirmed its conference wide program featuring the librarian, Keith Van Cleave, at the U.S. Geological Survey, Northern Prairie Wildlife Research Center. Fall GODORT annual meeting agenda includes discussion on details of the notable document award in the group's policy manual, the DOCKet column in the Good Stuff and contact with state agency webmasters regarding information online. Plans are underway through Naomi Frantes at the State Library to again organize the annual Notable Document Award booth at the conference in Jamestown. Last year's winning ND document, Heal Thyself: the Story of the First One Hundred Years of the School of Medicine and Health Sciences, was reviewed by ALA GODORT as one of the nation's best. North Dakota GODORT let the authors of the book, Dr.

John W. Vennes and Patrick McGuire as well as the dean of the UND Med School know of the ALA honor. Rachel White at the State Historical Society and Clarice Hackman at NDSU Library will run for GODORT chair-elect this fall.
