

President's Report –1
December 2007

September

I presided as president at the post-conference meeting on September 28, 2007 in Jamestown, ND.

In my role as former Conference Chair, authorized the payment of several invoices related to the 2007 NDLA Conference to NDLA Treasurer Mike Safratowich.

October

As the NDLA representative on the North Dakota Library Coordinating Council (ND LCC), I visited the West Fargo Public Library on October 19, 2007 interviewing Sandra Hannah as a follow up on the success of a grant which that organization had previously been awarded.

I submitted my quarterly column for "The Good Stuff."

I met with Phyllis Bratton, President Elect, about the 2008 NDLA Conference. She is considering a professional development/education as a theme for the next conference. We discussed the possibility of offering attendance at the 2008 conference for continuing education credit through Valley City State University.

November

I was unable to attend the Fargo Public Library Branch Opening when Dr. James Carlson was presented with the NDLA Benefactor of the Year Award however Doris Ott and Beth Postema were able to do so.

December

I made arrangements for the December meeting of the NDLA Executive Board Meeting to be held in Valley City, ND on December 7, 2008.
