

#3 NDLA Past President's Report
December 2008
Submitted by Donna James

Since relinquishing the gavel at the annual conference, I have:

- written a very brief article for The Good Stuff announcing the President's Award recipient for 2008,
- corresponded with the Beth Postema, former Past President about the responsibilities of the position and, in addition to giving me the Past President's materials, she shared suggestions and ideas for successful exhibitor relations at the annual conference,
- reviewed the President's Handbook and submitted a single suggestion for change-of-wording,
- contacted the NDLA webmaster to make some changes to the exhibitor contact areas,
- reminded the general membership of the need to begin thinking about nominations for the Librarian of the Year and Major Benefactor awards, and
- participated in online discussions and voting
